Brand Visual Design System

PRIMARY LOGO

This logo will serve as the primary visual identity across all brand materials, including collaterals, presentations, banners, and more.

INVERTED LOGO

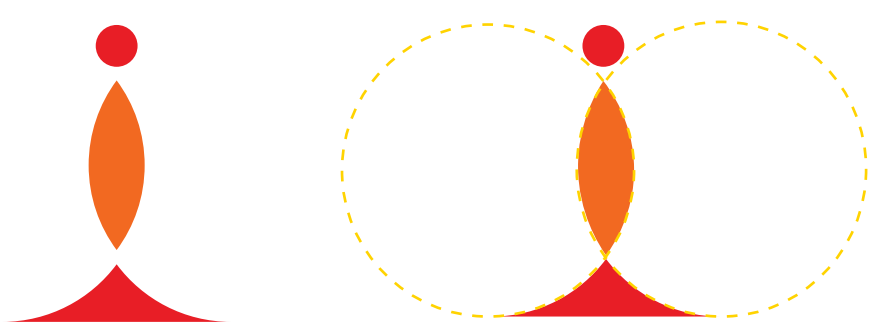
INVERTED LOGO

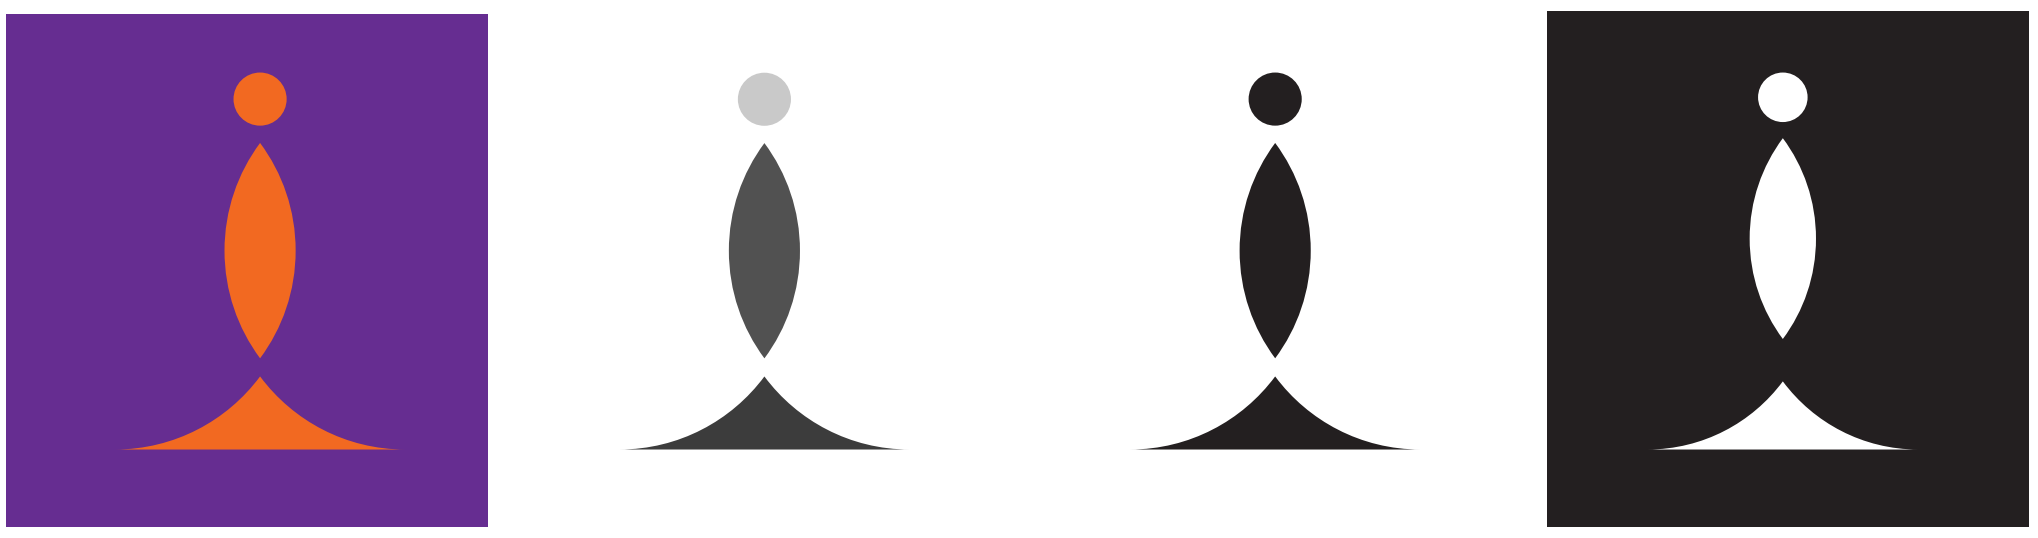
BLACK AND WHITE LOGO

These are the logo variations to be used based on the background colour and the visibility requirements, ensuring optimal clarity and brand consistency in every application.

LOGO MARK

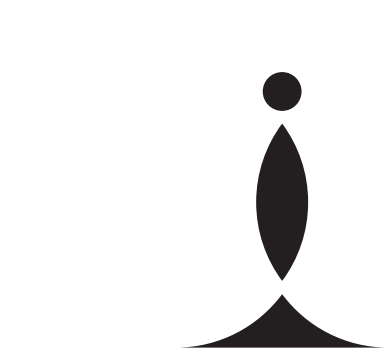
This logomark represents the brand independently, without accompanying text, and can be used in vertical or space-constrained areas where the primary logo may not be clearly visible.

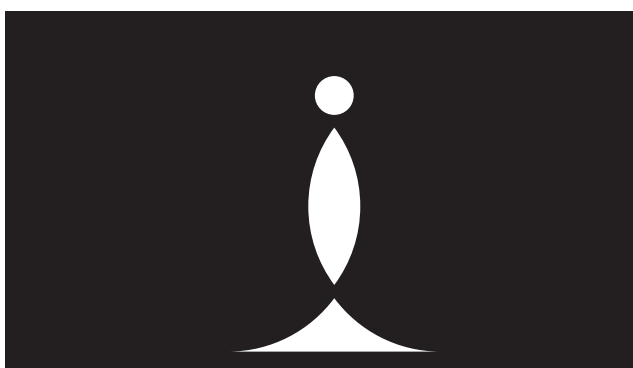


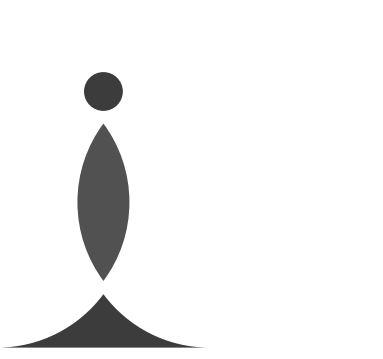


SECONDARY LOGO

This logo should be used in spaces where the primary logo cannot be accommodated or appears visually congested.







COLOUR PALETTE

These are the official brand colours, forming the palette to be used across all collaterals and brand materials.

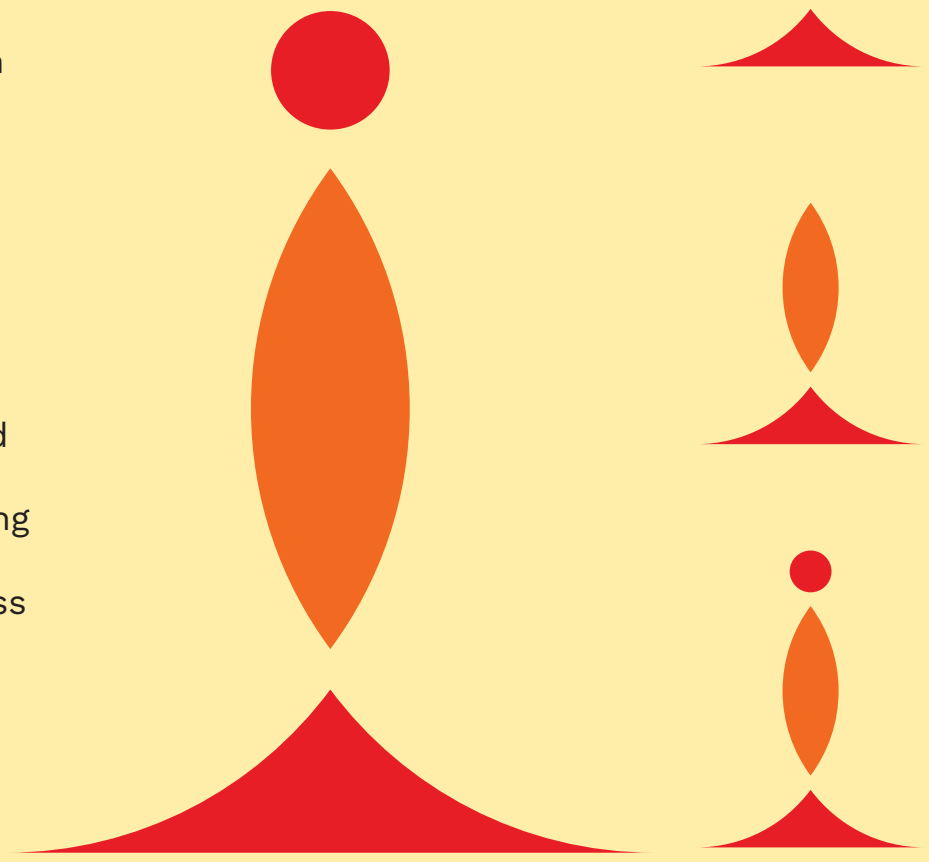
LOGOFORM

The logoform is an abstraction of a human in dhyana mudra.

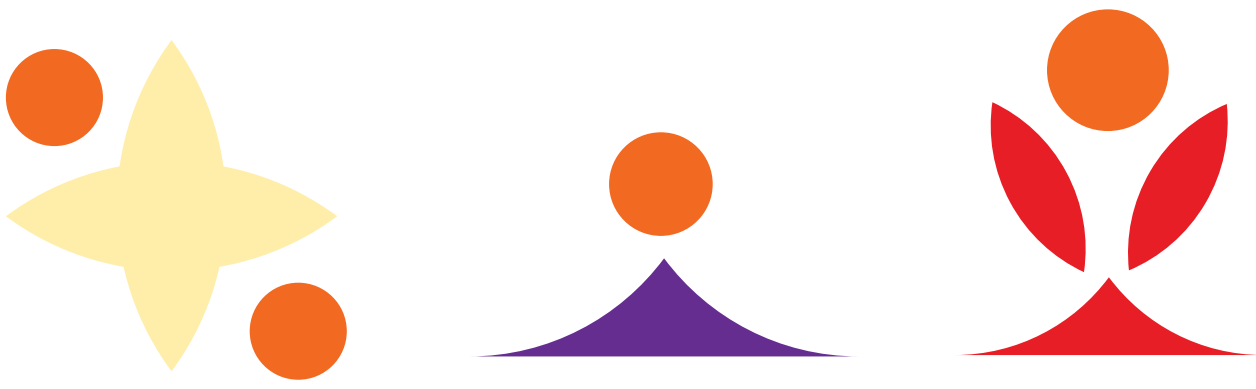
It draws a reflective parallel to Sthir's own vision - To educate seekers to practice stillness in motion.

The logo is constructed with three elements a mountain base signifying slow growth, a steady flame signifying stillness and observation and a circular head signifying emobodiment and completeness.



ICONS

The icons are built using elements of the primary logo. Any new icon should ideally be developed from the primary logo for visual consistency.



VISUAL IDENTITY

The visual identity of Sthir balances minimalism and play. Allow enough breathing space for content and the use of negative space to communicate thoughts.
